

CUB SCOUT LEADER TRAINING

Welcome New Leader!

Welcome Leader in a new position!

WHY training?

- * Boys deserve the best program Scouting and you can offer.
- * Your position is easier knowing what is expected and how to go about it. *
- Your position is easier when you know the resources available. *Training is fun and leaders deserve fun.

WHAT training?

1) New leader? Must attend New Leader Essentials, which covers the aims, methods, and mission of Scouting; organization; finances; resources; youth development, and guidelines for a safe program.

Changing position and have not attended New Leader Essentials? Attend now.

ONCE YOU HAVE ATTENDED NEW LEADER ESSENTIALS, YOU DO NOT ATTEND AGAIN WHEN YOU CHANGE A POSITION.

2) Must attend the Cub Scout Specific for the position you hold -- Tiger Cub Den Leader, Wolf/Bear Den Leader, Webelos Leader, Cubmaster, and Pack Committee Member. Assistants included. Learn about advancement, your position responsibilities, planning, and meeting structure.

WHERE is training?

New Leader Essentials – at different locations across the council.

Cub Scout Specifics – within each districts boundary.

Trainings are within a half-hour's drive of where you live. Attend any course that is convenient regardless of which district is offering the course.

WHEN is training?

New Leader Essentials – offered each month of the year except for December and June. Fall months include multiple offerings.

Cub Scout Specifics – offered several times in the fall and spring and in some months in between. Choose a date that fits your schedule and attend.

Check the Council Leader Training Schedule for date options-- available on the council page of this Web site, at district Roundtables, and in the Scout Shop.

HOW do you sign up?

Pre-registration required. Fees are minimal. Specifics include a Cub Scout Leader Book. Sign up forms available on the district web sites linked through the council web site, at roundtables, and at the Council Service Center or Scout Shop.

FINAL THOUGHTS

- Take your Training Track Record to each training.
- Take your Cub Scout Leader Book to each Cub Scout Specific you attend.
